TERMS & CONDITIONS

1. The customer understands and agrees that prior to installation of underground lines, the Landowner shall have established the final grade of the route and that after installation of the line, the grade shall not be increased or decreased more than 5 inches without the approval of the Utility. If the Customer is not the Landowner, the Customer is responsible for obtaining such agreement in writing from the Landowner and providing same to the Utility at no expense to the Utility.
2. Easement; Right to Access
  - A. The Customer, if also the Landowner, grants to the Utility the right to clear for installation and maintenance of its overhead and/or underground lines, to use any necessary equipment in, on and across the Customer's land to construct and service such lines, to extend service to future customers, and to permit the installation of communication lines and equipment owned by others. If the Customer is not the Landowner, then the Customer is responsible for obtaining such agreement in writing from the Landowner and providing same to the Utility at no expense to the Utility.
  - B. The Customer shall, without cost to the Utility, maintain the premises clear where lines are to be installed or are installed.
  - C. If requested by the Utility, the Customer shall grant to the Utility an easement in recordable form conveying the rights and privileges in (A) and (B) above. If the Customer is not the Landowner, the Customer is responsible for obtaining the easement in writing from the Landowner and providing the same to the Utility at no expense to the Utility.
3. The Customer, individually and jointly, agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Utility from all claims against the Utility because of any injury, disease or death sustained by reason of any act, omission or negligence on the part of the Customer, or the Customer's agent, employee or subcontractor.
4. The agreement shall become effective when signed by the Customer and accepted by the Utility.
5. The Utility agrees to return any deposit, with interest at the rate specified by the PSC, 12 months from the date of the Residential Service Agreement unless:
  - 1) The Customer's service has been disconnected during the time for rule violation or nonpayment of a delinquent account.
  - 2) The Utility determines that the information in the agreement was falsified or incomplete to extent deposit is required.
6. The Customer acknowledges the right to make written request to the Utility that the County Department of Health and Social Service or other third party be notified at least 5 calendar days prior to a scheduled disconnection of service for rule violation or nonpayment.
